
Range = 100 × (max − min) / mean; CV uses sample SD. Shared axes include zero.
The selected interval follows observed spikes; the two new dates are not an independent 14-day replication.